ABDUCTED PERSONS (RECOVERY) RULES, 1953.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 10 of the Abducted Persons (Recovery and Restoration) Act, 1949(LXV of 1949), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules:-

1. Short Title.- These rules may be called the Abducted Persons (Recovery) Rules 1953.

2. Definitions.- In these rules, "the Act" means the Abducted Persons (Recovery and Restoration) Act, 1949 (LXV of 1949).

3. Central Government to appoint persons to be in charge of camps.- Every camp established under the Act shall be under the charge of a person appointed by the Central Government in this behalf, and the person in charge shall be responsible for the maintenance of health and good order in the camp and for harmonious relations among the persons detained therein.

4. Provision for safety, shelter, clothing, etc. Adequate arrangements shall be made in every camp for the safety and protection of all persons detained therein in pursuance of the Act, and every person so detained shall be provided with accommodation, food, clothing and medical aid in accordance with such instructions as the Central Government may issue in this behalf.

5. Power to transfer abducted persons from one camp to another.- Subject to any general or special orders which may be issued by the Central Government in this behalf, it shall be lawful for the person in charge of a camp in any State to transfer any abducted persons detained therein to another camp whether within or without the State.

6. How abducted persons are to be escorted.- Whenever an abducted person who is a female has to be removed from one place to another, whether from the place of recovery to the camp or from one camp to another camp or to any other place for the purpose of restoration under the Act, she shall, whenever possible, be escorted by another female Sub-Inspector or Police.

7. Restoration of abducted persons to their relatives where no dispute exists.- In any case where no dispute arises as to the person temporarily detained in a camp being an abducted person, it shall be lawful for an Officer authorised in this behalf, subject to the provisions contained in section 6 of the Act to restore the Abducted person to his or her relatives, or to hand over the abducted person to any other person whether within or without India.

8. Composition of the Tribunal.- The Tribunal for deciding any question under section 6 of the Act shall consist of two officers specially appointed for the purpose by the Central Government, and the constitution of the Tribunal shall be notified in the Official Gazette.

9. Summary Procedure of Tribunal. (1) The Tribunal shall, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, have power to regulate its own procedure, including the fixing of the place, date and time of its sittings

(2) In the disposal of any matter coming before it, the Tribunal shall not be bound by any law relating to civil or criminal procedure or evidence but shall follow such procedure as will enable it to arrive at a proper decision, and shall give to every person interested who may appear before it a reasonable opportunity of being heard:

Provided that no legal practitioner shall be entitled to appear on behalf of any person in any matter before the Tribunal.

10. Medical examination of abducted persons.- Every abducted person shall be medically examined and treated, if necessary, before restoration.

11. Procedure of Tribunal in case of abducted children.- (1) Where the child of an abducted person has been recovered with the abducted person, the Tribunal shall, having due regard to the welfare of the child, dispose of the case of such child, as if the child had been separately recovered.

(1) Where any child born during the period of abduction is found to be abandoned by its mother, the Tribunal shall specfy the person to whom it is to be restored or handed over and, pending such restoration or handing over, shall specify the person by whom and the manner inwhich the abducted child is to be looked after:

Provided that if any such child is not so restored to the person from whose custody it was recovered, it shall be sent to such home recognized by the Central Government as the Tribunal thinks fit to specify.

12. ~~Revies~~ review or revision of decisions of Tribunal.- Any abducted person or any person in charge of a camp or any other person interested in the matter may apply to the ~~other person~~ Central Government for reviewing or revising any decision of the Tribunal within fifteen days from the date on which such decusion was communicated to the abducted person or the person in charge, as the case may be, and in the case of any other person interested, within fifteen days from the date of the decision.

REHABILITATION DEPARTMENT.
"C Br."

Home Deptt. has forwarded for disposal a letter from the Govt. of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs, The Govt. of India have requested the requisite consent of the State Govt. under section 5 of the Abducted Persons (Recovery and Restoration) Act No. LXXVII of 1952.

2. The Abducted Persons(Recovery and Restoration) Act, 1952 (LXXVII of 1952) does not seem to have been received in this Deptt. The Act, has, however, been published in the B.G.G. dated the 8th Janry. 1953 by the L.D. A. copy of the Act is put up below.

3. The Abducted Persons(Recovery and Restoration) Act, 1952, is an Act to further amend the Abducted Persons (R.A.R.) Act, 1949 (LXV of 1949). The principal Act, viz. LXV of 1949 has not been extended to this State. Under Section 2 of the Amendment Act (LXXVII of 1952) section 5 of the Act has been made applicable to the whole of India and the remaining provisions extend to the States of Punjab, U.P. P.& E.P Union, Rajasthan and Delhi. Section 5 of the Amendment Act (LXXVII of 1952) provides that any Police Officer of the Delhi Special Police Establishment who is specially authorised by the Central Govt. in this behalf, may, if he has reason to believe that an abducted persons has been removed from any place in any of the states specified in sub-section (2) of Section 1 of the Act and that such person is residing or is to be found in any mother place in India, without warrant and after securing the assistance of the officer-in-charge of the police station within whose jurisdiction the abducted person is believed to be residing or is to be found, enter and search the place and take into custody such person and deliver or cause to be delivered such person to the custody of the officer in charge of the area in the State from which the abducted person has been removed.

It has further been provided that the powers conferred by this Section in a part A State or a Part B State shall not be exercised by any member of the Delhi Special Police Establishment without the consent of the Government of that State.

4. Section 5 of the Abducted Persons (Recovery and Restoration) Amendment Act is intended to deal with cases of abducted persons who have been removed from the places in the State where the Act is in force to the States where it has not been extended. As the member of the Delhi Special Police Estt. will not be able to take any action in such cases without the consent of the Govt. there seems to be no objection to authorise the D.S.P.E. to exercise the powers under Section 5 of the Act in this State. Before the Govt. of India are addressed, H.D. and L.D. may see this u.o. for remarks. The necy. form of consent will be submitted toC.S. for signature after the papers are received back from the above Departments.

Id/-

Theredoes not seem to be any objection to giving our consent as desired by the Government of India. H.D. and L.D. may first see u.o. as proposed.

Id/-

I do not see any objection to the grant of theconsent required by the Government of India.

U.O.(7)

Please see the Rehabilitation Department note dated 17th July 1953.

2. There seems no objection to agree to the action proposed by the D.T.O. It, however, seems that copies of the Govt. of India letter and the reply that will be sent will have to be sent to the Inspector General of Police and Commissioner of Police for information and issuing suitable instructions to their subordinates. The Rehabilitation Department may take action accordingly.

The papers may be passed on to the L.D.

1) Below recd from Bombay - [illegible]

The file [illegible] contains copies of Bombay Govt orders on the subject "Recovery & Restoration of Abducted Persons". This dept is not dealing with this. Chief Secy. GAD may be requested to examine the question as to which Dept this subject will be allocated and amend the Business Rules which does not mention this subject in the Schedule.

~~Secretary~~

9/7/3/57(2) Rev. dept deals with the subject "Evacuee property and Displaced persons". It does not appear that "Recovery & Restoration of abducted persons" can be brought under the above subject. Hence GAD may transfer these papers to the concerned dept.
